LUCKY NUMBERS ARE EVERYWHERE

A lucky businessman from Selangor made it with the lucky numbers he got in a very uncanny way. He won a whopping RM4.9 million with a RM49 bet when the lucky set of numbers ie. 457098 was drawn as the first prize of Toto 6D on Saturday, 17 May 2008.

He and his wife went to check out a bungalow up for sale sometime in mid-April 2008 as his wife has been dreaming of owning a bigger house. After being shown around the bungalow by a property agent, the couple somewhat felt good with the place. When they were about to leave, the water meter outside the bungalow caught his eyes. He went over and flipped its cover open and saw the running number which had stopped at "457098". His intuition told him those were his lucky numbers, the rest is history...

He has been playing Toto games regularly. He particularly likes to play Toto 6D and lotto games. He added that he normally just plucks his lucky numbers from anywhere or anything around him. In this case, he got the lucky numbers from a water meter of a bungalow up for sale!

According to him, he now has more than enough money to pay for the bungalow. As the bungalow has brought him luck even before he owns it, he has in fact paid the down payment for the bungalow before he came to Sports Toto Malaysia's head office to claim his winning yesterday.

A spokesperson from Sports Toto Malaysia confirmed that a single winner won the first prize of Toto 6D held on Saturday, 17 May 2008 (Draw no. 3006/08) with a total winning sum of RM4.9 million.

On the sidelines, Mega Toto 6/52 jackpot is estimated to hit RM14.5 million this Saturday 24 May 2008. It is the hottest jackpot in town and is expected to stir a frenzy among those who are going after excitement and millionaire dreams.
